

REGISTRATION

Registration days are published in the college calendar.

Students should plan on making appointments with their advisor prior to registration. After meeting with the advisor, students may register anytime during open registration. Early registration is encouraged to ensure holding a spot as there is a class size maximum of 15 students.